IN RE:

CASE NO.

INTERNATIONAL HERITAGE, INC.,

DEBTOR

ORDER CONTINUING INJUNCTION

On February 8, 1999, the court entered an order restraining New World Junction from advertising for sale any list of any former International Heritage, Inc. representatives. A hearing was held in Raleigh, North Carolina on February 18, 1999, to determine whether New World Junction should be determined to be in violation of the automatic stay.

Special counsel for the trustee stated at the hearing that New World Junction has withdrawn the advertisement and that it will provide to the trustee an affidavit stating that it has not sold any list of former International Heritage, Inc. representatives. The court finds that no sanctions are warranted against New World Junction, but New World Junction is RESTRAINED from advertising for sale any list of former International Heritage, Inc. representatives until further order of this court.

SO ORDERED.
